20 HADITH FOR KIDS

The Sunnah is the most authentic explanation and elaboration of the Word of Allah. Many worthy collections of Hadith of the Prophet ﷺ have been compiled and translated into English. Yet very few, however, have been compiled especially for children and young people, and this collection is intended to fill this gap.

This collection presents twenty sound Ahadith that will appeal to all ages, but are especially suitable for young people, taking into consideration their needs and interests. In translation and brief commentary that follows each Hadith, an effort has been made to use plain language and explanation for the ordinary mind. Moreover, useful exercises have also been added. In this way, this collection will be greatly beneficial for the young Muslims. This small book has been the collaborative effort of many. It is our hope that this collection of Ahadith will serve as a useful introduction to the timeless wisdom of the last Prophet of Islam both at home and the classroom.

HADITH FOR KIDS

Maulvi Abdul Aziz

Publisher's Note

The Greatness of the Prophet's Way

Allah's Messenger ﷺ is reported as having said, 'I am leaving behind with you two things. You will never go astray if you firmly adhere to them: the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger.'

[Muwatta Imām Mālik, Book of Congregation, Hadith: 1395].

The Sunnah is the most authentic explanation and elaboration of the Word of Allah. As the Prophet ﷺ was the living example of Divine Guidance, his Sunnah shows us how to live in accordance with the Divine Guidance. The Sunnah makes the Guidance revealed in the Book of Allah easy to understand, follow and put into practice. Many worthy collections of Hadith [plural: Ahadith, sayings, and deeds] of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ have been compiled and translated into English. Yet very few, however, have been compiled specially for children and young people, and this collection is intended to fill that gap.

This collection presents twenty sound Ahadith that will appeal to all ages, but are specially suitable for young people, taking into consideration their needs and interests. In translation and brief commentary that follows each Hadith, an effort has been made to use plain language and explanation for the ordinary mind. Moreover, useful exercises have also been added. In this way, this collection will be greatly beneficial for the young Muslims. This small book has been the collaborative effort of many. We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to Maulvi Abdul Aziz for his help with reviewing the translations and helpful editorial suggestions. We would also like to thank Art Director Muhammad Sift Elahi and Muhammad Naeem for the supervision and lovely layout & design respectively. It is our hope that this collection of Ahadith will serve as a useful introduction to the timeless wisdom of the last Prophet of Islam both at home and the classroom.

Hadith 1

مَنْ دَلَّ عَلَىٰ خَيْرٍ فَلَهُ مِثْلُ أَجْرِ فَاعِلِهِ

'The one who tells another about something good will have a reward like that of the one who does it.'

[Saheeh Muslim: 1893]

Explanation

Those who call others to do good deeds get reward from Allah for their work. In other words, one who encourages others to do good deeds is like one who performs it. We should, therefore, always invite others to do good deeds.

A

Answer these questions

i

What does this Hadeeth ask Muslims to do?

ii

One should think about one's affairs, and not bother what others are doing.

Do you agree with this view? Why?

Fill in the blanks

i

The one who _____ about something _____ will have _____ like that of the one who does it.

Hadith 2

لَا إِيمَانَ لِمَنْ لَا أَمَانَةً لَهُ وَلَا دِينَ لِمَنْ لَا عَهْدَ لَهُ

‘There is no Faith for one who is not trustworthy and there is no religious commitment for one who does not keep his promise.’

[Saheeh Ibn Hibban: 1/422 Hadeeth 194]

Explanation

Trustworthiness is a great virtue. If someone entrusts you with something, safeguard it. Real Faith means trustworthiness or truthfulness under every condition. The habit of lying creates a distance between the liar and his Faith. Allah wants Muslims to fulfill their promises. A person who does not keep promises is like one who has no Faith in Allah and the Afterlife.

Hadith 3

مَنْ غَشَّنَا فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا

‘Whoever deceives us is not of us.’ [Saheeh Muslim: 101]

Explanation

This Hadeeth sets a link between Faith and economic behaviour. Economic ethics is an aspect of Faith or Imaan. The cheater or deceiver cannot cheat or deceive and remain a believer. Allah’s Messenger thereby denied the deceiver the true Faith. He who deceives is not of us. Think of those who fake medicines, currency notes, perfumes, or mix water into milk. Cheating and telling lies are a sickness, which has no medicine.

Hadith 4

لَا يَشْكُرُ اللَّهَ مَنْ لَا يَشْكُرُ النَّاسَ

‘He does not thank Allah who does not thank people.’

[Sunan Abi Dawood: 4811]

Explanation

The Hadeeth gives some idea about the status of thankfulness before Allah. What is thankfulness? Thankfulness is the acknowledgement of the bounties of Allah, with a sense of humility. Being grateful is the cornerstone of our Faith. You should always thank people for any help they give you. You can thank people with a nod of the head, a gesture of hand, or with a thankful glance. Thank Allah for whatever you have. Thank people for whatever they do for you. The one, who does not thank people, does not sufficiently thank Allah.

Hadith 5

إِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لَتُطْفِئُ غَصَبَ الرَّبِّ وَتَدْفَعُ مِيتَةَ السُّوءِ

‘Indeed charity extinguishes the wrath of the Lord and it protects against the evil death.’

[Jami' at-Tirmidhi: 664]

Explanation

Love for worldly possessions is primarily a disease of the heart; while Sadaqah or charity is its cure! But what is charity? Every act of goodness is an act of charity. Every Tasbeehah is a charity.

Every Tahmeedah is a charitable act. Ordering good is a charity. Forbidding evil is a charity. Spending on those in need is a highly commendable act of charity. It is a form of worship. Your removing a stone, thorn, or bone from the road is a charity. Giving of charity pleases Allah. Allah rewards the giver of charity in many ways. It ends the anger of the Lord. He causes the giver to die a good death.

Hadith 6

صَنَاعُ الْمَعْرُوفِ تَقِي مَصَارِعَ السُّوءِ

‘Doing acts of kindness will protect one from calamity and a bad end.’

[al-Mu’jam al-Kabeer by al-Tabarani: 7939]

Explanation

Allah is Merciful and mercy-giving. He is kind. He rewards us when we are kind to others. And keep clearly in mind; it does not cost to be kind. A Muslim’s Faith is shown by the way he or she treats others. A Muslim, therefore, should be known for his kindness, courtesy, and help to others. Kindness brings out many benefits in this world as well as in the Afterlife. Doing acts of kindness protects one from calamity. One of the results of kindness is that it saves the kind from a bad end.

Hadith 7

مَنْ حَمَلَ عَلَيْنَا السُّلَاحَ فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا

‘Whoever bears arms against us is not of us.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 7070]

Explanation

Once, a man passed through the mosque. He was carrying arrows, the heads of which were not covered up. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered the man to hold the arrows by their iron heads, so that they might not injure any Muslim. Killing a Muslim unjustly is a major sin in Islam. Islam forbids violence. Islam is a completely peaceful religion. Islam teaches peace! Bearing arms here means to have weapons and be ready to fight!

Hadith 8

مِفتَاحُ الْجَنَّةِ الصَّلَاةُ

‘The key to Paradise is Prayer.’

[Jami' at-Tirmidhi: 4]

Explanation

Jannah is the Arabic word for Paradise or Garden. The Qur'aan often speaks of Paradise underneath which rivers flow. The delights prepared therein for the believers are hidden and hardly imaginable in man's present state of existence. Fruits of obedience to Allah ripen the unseen. Five daily Prayers are obligatory upon all adult Muslims. The key to Paradise, according to this Hadeeth, is Prayer or Salah. Salah is a key which opens the locked doors of Paradise to a believer.

Hadith 9

خَيْرُكُمْ مَنْ تَعْلَمَ الْقُرْآنَ وَعَلَمَهُ

‘The best of you are those who learn the Qur'aan and teach it.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 5027]

Explanation

Islam is the bounty of Allah. It is Allah's Mercy that He made us from the people of the Qur'aan. The Qur'aan is the speech of Allah. It is the Book of Allah. It is Allah's guidance for humanity. Life, with the Qur'aan is, in reality, life with Allah. This is why Allah's Messenger ﷺ made a point that should affect the heart of every believer, 'The best of you are those who learn the Qur'aan and teach it.'

Hadith 10

بُنِيَ الْإِسْلَامُ عَلَىٰ خَمْسٍ: شَهَادَةٍ أَنَّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ،
وَإِقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ، وَإِيتَاءِ الزَّكَاةِ، وَالْحَجَّ، وَصَوْمِ رَمَضَانَ

‘Islam is built upon five [pillars]: the testimony that there is no God but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah; establishing regular Prayer [Salah]; paying the Zakah; the Hajj [Pilgrimage] and Fasting Ramadan.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 8]

Explanation

In this Hadeeth, Allah's Messenger ﷺ has given us a parable in which he gives us the picture of Islam like that of a house. The pillars or the foundations of the house are five. If the house is missing these five, then, in fact, it does not exist at all. Hence, whoever brings these five completes his Islam. The basis of the parable is that when one of the Five Pillars of the building is in ruin, then the building itself is incomplete. In particular, if the main pillar [the testimony of Fasting] is missing, the house cannot stand or be said to exist.

Hadith 11

إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالَ بِالنِّيَّاتِ، وَإِنَّمَا لِكُلِّ أَمْرٍ إِيمَانٌ

‘Actions are but by intentions and each man will have but that which he intended.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 1]

Explanation

A discussion of this Hadeeth could fill an entire book. This is one of the most comprehensive Hadeeth of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ in fact, covered all the affairs of the Hereafter in one sentence, ‘Every action is based on its intention.’ One scholar says that this Hadeeth is one-half of Islam. Another scholar is of the opinion that this Hadeeth covers one-third of knowledge. This is because the person earns rewards with his heart, tongue, and body. Thus, intention is involved in one of these three parts. Imām al-Bukhari begins his collection 'Sahih al-Bukhari' with this Hadeeth. This Hadeeth teaches us that if the intention is sound, then action is sound. If the intention is corrupt, then action is corrupt. Therefore, all actions must be performed to please Allah. Allah rewards a good action if it is done by a good intention.

Hadith 12

مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيَقُلْ خَيْرًا أَوْ لِيَصُمُّ

'Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day let him speak good or else keep silent.'

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 6138]

Explanation

In this Hadeeth, the Prophet ﷺ mentioned one quality of those who believe in Allah and the Last Day. This act is a part of complete Imaan. This suggests that the one who does not have this quality is not a true and complete believer. If someone claims to himself that he is a true believer, then he must possess this quality. It is important to realize that Allah's Messenger ﷺ only mentioned belief in Allah and the Last Day. It will be on the Last Day that everyone will be held accountable for his deeds. Those deeds would include whatever the person said. The true believer remains conscious that what he says may either be pleasing or displeasing to Allah. Therefore, he weighs his statement before he utters it. If he finds that it is good, then he says it. If he finds that it is not good, he refrains from saying it.

Hadith 13

كُلُّ مَعْرُوفٍ صَدَقَةٌ

‘Every act of kindness is a charity.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 6021]

Explanation

Giving money to others is not the only form of charity. Islamic thought of charity is very vast. In Islam charity implies doing good – to others or even to one's own self. Thus every act of kindness or goodness is an act of charity. Teaching about the religion is a charity. Ordering good and preventing evil is a charity. Removing something harmful from the road is a charity. Your smiling at your brother is a charity. Refraining from harming others is an act of charity. Thus, charity includes all of the good or positive acts one does to others.

Hadith 14

إِتْقُوا النَّارَ وَلَوْ بِشَقِّ تَمْرَةٍ

‘Protect yourselves from the Fire, even with half a date.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 1417]

Explanation

The true believer develops in his heart the joy of giving for the sake of Allah. He recognizes how pleased Allah is with such a deed. He knows ‘giving’ extinguishes the anger of his Lord. This Hadeeth of the Prophet ﷺ encourages us to give, even half a date, in the way of Allah. It teaches us that every good act, however small it might be, has its value and reward. Thus, one should not feel shy to give even a small present to one's neighbor, even if it is a goat's hoof.

Hadith 15

مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيُكْرِمْ ضَيْفَهُ

‘Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day, let him honour his guest.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 6138]

Explanation

This is a part of a Hadeeth we have studied earlier: the Hadeeth 12. The previous Hadeeth was about speaking and keeping silent. This part of the Hadeeth talks about honouring a guest. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ informs us in it that the believer in Allah and the Last Day is generous to his guests and visitors. This shows that anywhere a Muslim travels he will feel right at home when he comes across his Muslim brothers. This increases the feeling of brotherhood and love among the Muslim community as a whole.

Hadith 16

الْمَرْءُ مَعَ مَنْ أَحَبَّ

'A man will be with those whom he loves.'

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 6168]

Explanation

Allah's Messenger ﷺ declares in this Hadeeth that 'everyone will be with those who he loves.' Once a man came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and asked, 'O Allah's Messenger! What do you say about a man who loves some people, but cannot catch up with their good deeds?' Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, 'Everyone will be with those whom he loves.' This means in Paradise, in spite of the fact that his good deeds will be less than theirs.

Hadith 17

قَالَ اللَّهُ: أَنْفَقْ يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ! أَنْفَقْ عَلَيْكَ

Allah says, 'Spend, O son of Adam, so I will spend on you.'

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 5352]

Explanation

W_{ealth} is a bounty and blessing from Allah. In fact, wealth is a true trial and test. A Muslim should realize that wealth comes from Allah. He should, therefore, try his best to use it in a way that is a form of thanksgiving, gratitude and worship of Allah. The true believer cultivates in his heart the joy of giving for the sake of Allah. However, until someone gives up some of his wealth and spends for the sake of Allah, he may never realize this fact. This Hadeeth encourages Muslims to spend in the way of Allah. One should not fear decrease. Spending in the way of Allah does not in any way decrease wealth. Allah has promised in this Hadeeth that He would spend on the spender.

Hadith 18

إِذَا عَطَسَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ فَشَمَّتُوهُ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَحْمِدِ اللَّهَ، فَلَا تُشَمَّتُوهُ

'When one of you sneezes and praises Allah, then say Yarhamukallah [May Allah have mercy on you] to him, but if he does not praise Allah, then do not say it to him.'

[Saheeh Muslim: 2992]

يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ

Explanation

Sneezing is considered a blessing from Allah. A Muslim should not seek to prevent a sneeze. It is a natural function. Since sneezing is considered a blessing from Allah, a Muslim should acknowledge this by saying, 'Alhamdulillah: Praise and thanks to Allah.' When a Muslim sneezes and praises Allah, others should invoke a blessing on him by saying, 'Yarhmukallah: May Allah have mercy on you.' If a Muslim sneezes and does not praise Allah or forgets to do so, invoking a blessing on him is not required. This is because the sneezer himself did not praise Allah.

Hadith 19

مَنْ أَحْدَثَ فِي أَمْرِنَا هَذَا مَا لَيْسَ فِيهِ فَهُوَ رَدٌّ

‘Whoever introduces into this matter of ours anything that is not part of it will have it rejected.’

[Saheeh al-Bukhari: 2697]

This hadeeth is also one of the foundations of Islam itself. From the Hadeeth 11, one can understand that every act that is not done for the sake of Allah is rejected. From this Hadeeth, one can also understand that every act that is not done in accordance with the Shar'iah is also rejected by Allah. Every act that does not form part of the Prophet's [ﷺ] religion in reality cannot be considered part of the religion of Islam. This Hadeeth is related to the concept of the introduction of new things, ideas or ways in Islam; not taught by the Qur'aan or the Messenger of Allah [ﷺ]. Imām an-Nawawi [d. 676 H/ 1277 CE], stated that this Hadeeth should be memorized by all Muslims.
